Arbitrator and Mediator at JAMS

Specializing in labor and employment law disputes for more than 30 years

One of the very few full-time neutrals with first-chair experience in litigating wage and hour law class actions

Well-qualified to serve as an arbitrator or mediator for any kind of labor or employment law dispute

Available to arbitrate or mediate employment law matters anywhere

Deborah Saxe is an experienced and talented arbitrator and mediator for labor and employment law disputes.

A graduate of Penn State University and the UCLA School of Law, Ms. Saxe was in private practice at major law firms (Jones Day, Heller Ehrman, and Seyfarth Shaw) for more than 30 years and was widely viewed as one of the best in the business. She is a Fellow in The College of Labor & Employment Lawyers (since 2001) and is regularly included in The Best Lawyers of America. As a lawyer, she was routinely ranked by Chambers & Partners USA as a “leading lawyer” in employment law and, for ten consecutive years (2004-2013), she was recognized by her peers as one of the Top 50 Women SuperLawyers in Los Angeles and Orange Counties. In 2010, 2011, and 2012, she was recognized by Human Resources Executive magazine as one of the 100 Most Powerful Labor & Employment Lawyers in the Nation. She is listed in Marquis’ Who’s Who in America, Who’s Who of American Women, and Who’s Who in the World. She chaired the Labor & Employment Law Section of the Los Angeles County Bar Association in 2002-03.

She is a Fellow in the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, a Fellow in the International Academy of Mediators, and a member of Arbitral Women. Since 2013, she has been recognized by her peers as a SuperLawyer in the field of ADR.
